
homework weekend 17

1. Those who want to bring charge against good and noble women, they are required to bring certain number of witnesses. How many witnesses are needed? Read the verse 24:4 to answer.

2. If the required number of witnesses is not produced, then charge against woman cannot be established. What does Allāh say about those who cannot bring the witness yet blame the woman? Read verse 24:13 to answer.

3. The famous Battle of the Camels was fought between two important people in history. Who were they?

- (a) 'Ā'ishah and Abū Bakr
- (b) 'Ā'ishah and 'Ali
- (c) 'Ā'ishah and 'Uthman
- (d) 'Uthman and 'Ali

4. Those who accuse chaste and believing woman are condemned and they will face punishment in the Hereafter. Testimony against them will be brought. Read sūrah An-Nūr verses 23 and 24 to answer what will bear testimony against them.

- (a) _____ (b) _____ (c) _____

5. How many children were born to 'Ā'ishah and Prophet Muhammad (S)?

- (a) One child.
- (b) Two children.
- (c) Five children.
- (d) No children were born to them.

6. What happened when 'Ā'ishah went to search for the lost necklace?

- (a) Her caravan was attacked.
- (b) The caravan left without her.
- (c) The caravan came back to pick her up.
- (d) The caravan waited for one full day.