
homework weekend 25

1. Write down the meaning of the phrase “Amr Bil Ma’rūf”.

2. When several people do good things, what type of feelings or relationships occur among them?

- A. They become jealous.
- B. They become Muslim.
- C. They become protectors of each other.
- D. They become evil people.

3. Explain why it is important to enjoin good and forbid evil in today’s world?

4. What do you think will happen to the society when the mechanism of amr bil ma’rūf works in the society?

- A. The society will become a good society.
- B. The society will become poor.
- C. The society will become an evil society.
- D. Nothing will happen to the society.

5. In order for anyone to enjoin others to do good, what should happen to him or her first?

- A. The person should become an evil person.
- B. The person should become an Imam of the masjid.
- C. The person should go to college.
- D. The person should become a good person.

6. Read verse 9:71. In this verse believing men and believing women do four things in addition to enjoining good and forbidding evil. What are the four things they do?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

