
homework weekend 26

1. Based on the lesson, write three oral sins people can always commit.

- A. _____
- B. _____
- C. _____

2. According to the lesson, what can oral sins cost us?

- A. Lots of money.
- B. Our reward in the Afterlife.
- C. Our job.
- D. Our childhood.

3. In the Qur'ān what type of oral sin is equated with eating the flesh of one's dead brother?

- A. Sin of eating dead meat.
- B. Sin of backbiting.
- C. Sin of slander.
- D. Sin of hypocrisy.

4. Explain in a few words what you think the Prophet (S) meant when he said, "a better Muslim is one from whose tongue and hands the Muslims feel safe."

5. When prophet Ibrāhīm (A)'s father insulted him for speaking against the idols, how did he respond?

- A. He insulted him in return.
- B. He told his father to get out of his home.
- C. He started a fight with him.
- D. He greeted him with a peace greeting.

6. We often make promises, but later we do not want to fulfill them. Read sūrah As-Saff verse 2-3 and identify which of the following states the way Allāh looks at this type of oral sins.

- A. Allāh (swt) says He will forgive it.
- B. Allāh (swt) does not care.
- C. Allāh (swt) hates such actions.
- D. Allāh (swt) will send the sinners to hell.

7. Sūrah Hujurāt, verse 11 was quoted in the lesson. Based on the verse why should people not laugh at others?
