
homework weekend 5

1. What is the meaning of the Islamic greeting “Assalamu Alaikum”?

2. According to the Qur’an, when someone greets us with an Islamic greeting, how should we respond?
 - A. Just say the same greetings back to them.
 - B. Say a greeting similar to it or better than that.
 - C. Say nothing, but smile.
 - D. Does not matter what we say.
3. According to the lesson, what would be the greetings in Paradise?
 - A. Perseverance.
 - B. Presence.
 - C. Pressure.
 - D. Peace.
4. Why is the greeting of peace much better than any other greeting?
 - A. Without peace life would be miserable.
 - B. Peace is better than money, wealth, name, fame, health.
 - C. It means you wish something good for the person.
 - D. All of the above.
5. Why do human societies have the custom of greeting each other?
 - A. To express each other’s religion.
 - B. To express that there is no misunderstanding.
 - C. To express friendship and goodwill.
 - D. To express love.
6. What are the two things a person should ask or say before he or she can enter another person’s house?
 - A. Ask for safety and security.
 - B. Ask for permission and express a reason for coming.
 - C. Ask for permission and greet the inhabitants.
 - D. Ask for food and say how long you will stay.
7. Read Surah al-Ahzāb, verse 44. How will the believers be greeted when they meet Allāh? What has been prepared for the believers?
