

---

---

homework weekend 6

1. What are the two things Shaitān promised would happen to Ādam (A) if he ate from the tree?

A. _____ B. _____

2. Read sūrah Al-A'raf, verse 17. Where will Shaitān be when he wants to entice us?

_____

_____

3. One day a friend of yours dropped by your home when your parents were away. He suggested the name of a bad web site. He said your parents would never find out about it. You know that you are not allowed to go to these web sites. You always wondered about the bad sites and wanted to check it out. Relate this experience to the moral learned from the story of Ādam (A) and answer the following questions:

A. What role is your friend playing? _____

B. The idea seems great, but what should you do? _____

C. Under such temptation whose advice should you listen to? _____

D. Explain if it is OK to go to the web site and say sorry later? _____

_____

E. What would be a better option? Explain your answer. _____

_____

_____

_____

4. In order to avoid Shaitān's temptation, what should we do? Circle all the correct answers.

A. Try to follow only the good advice from Shaitān.

B. We cannot do anything. Shaitān is very powerful.

C. Try to follow Allāh's command.

D. Try to remain alert from Shaitān's whisperings.

E. Do nothing, no matter what, Allāh will forgive us.

F. Make friendships with good people.

G. When in doubt about the correct or wrong path, check it out with a teacher or your parents.